Vision Statement

Incarnation Parish is a Roman Catholic community centered around the Lord Jesus, a living sign of hope to all that the Word made flesh dwells among us. His presence and love is encountered in all areas of our life together, especially in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, in Sacred Scripture and in the Sacraments. We seek to make the Lord's presence and love known through service and education, through evangelization and through continual conversion and renewal in Him. We entrust our life together and our sharing in the mission of Christ to the protection and intercession of Mary, Mother of the Lord and our Mother.

"BRING A FRIEND TO CHURCH!"

FROM THE PASTOR'S PEN

This spring the diocese offered parishes the opportunity to enhance their Religious Education Programs by allowing them to apply for grants from the St. Elizabeth Ann Seton (Educational) Trust. I am happy to relay to you that Incarnation was one of the limited number of parishes selected to receive a diocesan grant each year for the next three fiscal years. The purpose of the grant was to develop parish Faith Formation Programs primarily by allowing parishes that could not afford a full-time Director of Religious Education the means to hire one.

With the grant funding secured, the parish will have a full-time DRE beginning this September. I am excited to welcome Sister Joan Klimski, OP to the Parish Staff. Sister Joan is a Dominican Sister of Amityville as are our own sisters in the Incarnation Convent and arrives in Hollis and Queens Village highly recommended. She has vast teaching experience in both primary and secondary schools within the Diocese of Brooklyn and the Diocese of Rockville Centre. Sister Joan comes to us from St. Agnes Academic High School in College Point where she was Chair of the Religion Department as well as an active teacher and moderator of several student groups. I look forward to her presence among us at Incarnation.

I would also like to recognize Mrs. Amalia Vais and thank her for her hard work and ministry as part-time Religious Education Administrator over the past years. Even with her limited role as head of the Faith Formation Program here, she has made tremendous contributions particularly with our parish young people. I am so grateful that she will remain on the faculty of Incarnation School.

I hope that Sr. Joan will continue the joy and enthusiasm that all our catechists demonstrate when they come to share their Faith in the Person of Jesus each weekend. I expect even greater things for our "Religious Ed Family" now that we can serve them better with a full-time DRE.

I ask your prayers for all our parish children during the summer months. Please point them in the right direction, or at least point them to the church on Sundays. Please also pray for Sr. Joan, Mrs. Vais, and all our catechists in this transition time at Incarnation.

God Bless!

Roman Missal Glossary

Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments (CDWDS) – The department in Rome responsible for regulating & promoting the Church's liturgy and sacraments; the CDWDS also reviews, revises, & approves liturgical texts & translations.

Dynamic Equivalency – A translation principle which aims to translate basic thoughts rather than words. The original words and form are important only as a vehicle for the meaning; therefore, it is the meaning alone that is truly important in the translation. This method was used during the preparation of the first and second editions of the Roman Missal, but was replaced in 2001 in favor of formal equivalency (see below).

Formal Equivalency – A translation principle approved by the CDWDS in its 2001 document Liturgiam authenticam for use in the third edition of the Roman Missal and all future liturgical books. This method aims to translate texts "integrally and in the most exact manner, without omissions or additions in terms of their content, and without paraphrases or glosses." The original Latin text is thus rendered into English more literally.

International Commission on English in the Liturgy (ICEL) – Committee chartered to prepare English translations of liturgical texts on behalf of the conferences of bishops of English-speaking countries. Currently, 11 conferences of Bishops are full members of the Commission.

Editio Typica (Typical Edition) – Latin text of the Roman Missal from which vernacular translations are written. The editio typica tertia is Latin for "third typical edition," the version of the Roman Missal being implemented in late 2011.

Liturgiam Authenticam – Document produced by the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments (Vatican) which discusses the use of vernacular languages in the publication of the books of the Roman Liturgy, providing the guiding principles for translation.

Roman Missal/Missale Romanum – The ritual text for the celebration of the Mass, which contains the words and actions completed by the assembly and the celebrant during Mass. Missale Romanum is the Latin name of Roman Missal.

General Instruction of the Roman Missal (GIRM) – The introductory material in the Roman Missal, containing the general outline and ordering of the celebration of the Mass, including detailed instructions about what the priest, the deacon, the other ministers, and the congregation do during the various parts of the Mass.

A COOL PLACE. As we move further into summer and temperatures rising, how fortunate we are to have an air-conditioned church in which to worship daily and on Sundays. We rely on your generous contribution to meet our air-conditioning expenses. Please use the white envelopes in the church today and keep cool!

INCARNATION GOLF SHIRTS are available in the Parish Office and make for a wonderful gift. Each is burghundy and available in all sizes. It has an image of Mary at the Annunciation when she conceived by the Spirit and with the words of John's Gospel recalling the Incarnation. The shirts are $12. Stop by & pick one up today.
