Vision Statement

Incarnation Parish is a Roman Catholic community centered around the Lord Jesus, a living sign of hope to all that the Word made flesh dwells among us. His presence and love is encountered in all areas of our life together, especially in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, in Sacred Scripture and in the Sacraments. We seek to make the Lord's presence and love known through service and education, through evangelization and through continual conversion and renewal in Him. We entrust our life together and our sharing in the mission of Christ to the protection and intercession of Mary, Mother of the Lord and our Mother.

“BRING A FRIEND TO CHURCH!”

FROM THE PASTOR'S PEN

Last week I was tidying up the envelopes and cards on the radiators around the church when I was taken aback by the red and white envelopes for the 2011 Annual Catholic Appeal. - Don't worry I am not going to ask for your money, but if you haven't made a pledge it's never too late. And your pledge, no matter what size, reflects how excited you are about the good things that are happening at Incarnation. - What struck me was the theme: One Vibrant Church!

As I look out from the Altar each Sunday, I realize how vibrant our parish is and how many gifts you have. Your personalities and presence towards each other, your experiences and histories, your faith and your families are all gifts from God. It's not just money in the bank that makes a person rich. Prayer, patience, humor; welcoming, listening, teaching, making time for others or following things through to completion are definitely some of the credits in the Ledger of Life.

Above I said that I wasn't going to ask you for your money. And that's true. What WE WANT at Incarnation is YOU! Your gifts, your talents, your time enthusiastically given makes not only for a vibrant Church but Jesus Himself is served. Through your gifts and generosity our parish community is renewed and transformed time and time again.

I want to challenge each and everyone who worships here at Incarnation to take a month to reflect and think about the gifts and talents that you have that are not being shared with those around you. Perhaps our parish is less vibrant because for whatever reason you are not sharing your energies. Think about how you hold back from sharing your gifts as well as why you might be holding back those gifts from the Altar. Surely there is sacrifice involved with sharing our gifts. But as Scripture says and our parents and grandparents taught us when we were little: It's better to give than to receive.

I suggest you take the next month to reflect and pray so that you might be able to make more vibrant Incarnation and serve Jesus as we begin a new School and Pastoral Year in September. Periodically the Sunday Bulletin contains Incarnation Information which has the name and contact person for the many ministries and organizations here at the parish. They are as varied as we are. Some are more social, others more ministerial in nature. Some have accents of liturgical service at Mass, others more catechetical involving teaching and sharing faith. Some stress our life of prayer, others our invitation and welcome as a Christian Community. Some are for young people, others for more seasoned parishioners. I honestly hope and pray that beginning September you will be more active in your parish.

Next time you pass the radiators in the church and see those red and white envelopes for the 2011 Annual Catholic Appeal if you haven't made a contribution, please by all means do. But moreover may they remind you that by sharing our lives and energies we are . . . One Vibrant Church!

God Bless! Father O'Connor

1. Why was there a need for a new translation?

The Missale Romanum (Roman Missal), the ritual text for the celebration of the Mass, was promulgated by Pope Paul VI in 1970 as the definitive text of the reformed liturgy of the Second Vatican Council. That Latin text, the editio typica (typical edition), was translated into various languages for use around the world; the English edition was published in the United States in 1973. The Holy See issued a revised text, the editio typica altera, in 1975. Pope John Paul II promulgated the third edition (editio typica tertia) of the Missale Romanum during the Jubilee Year in 2000. Among other things, the third edition contains prayers for the celebration of recently canonized saints, additional prefaces for the Eucharistic Prayers, additional Masses and Prayers for Various Needs and Intentions, and some updated and revised rubrics (instructions) for the celebration of the Mass. To aid the process of translation of the Missale Romanum, editio typica tertia, the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments issued Liturgiam Authenticam, in 2001, an Instruction on the vernacular translation of the Roman Liturgy which outlines the principles and rules for translation. In 2007, the Congregation for Divine Worship issued the Ratio Translationis for the English Language, which outlined the specific rules for translation in English.

2. Who completed the work of translation?

The process of translation was a highly consultative work of several groups. The International Commission on English in the Liturgy (ICEL) is chartered to prepare English translations of liturgical texts on behalf of the conferences of bishops of English-speaking countries. The USCCB and the other member Conferences of Bishops received draft translations of each text from ICEL (called “Green Books”) and had the opportunity to offer comments and suggestions to ICEL. A second draft (called the “Gray Book”) was then prepared by ICEL, which each Conference of Bishops approved (a Conference reserves the right to amend or modify a particular text) and submitted to the Vatican for final approval. At the level of the Vatican (the Holy See), the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments examined texts and offered authoritative approval (recognitio) of texts, granting permission for their use. The Congregation was aided by the recommendations of Vox Clara, a special committee of bishops and consultants from English-speaking countries convened to assist with the English translation of the Missale Romanum.

SUMMER MISSION APPEAL. Each summer the Propagation of the Faith Office invites a missionary to speak in each parish. Father Mark Franceschini of the Servants of Mary will speak at all the Masses next weekend. There will be a special door collection. Let us support the missionary activity of the Church.
